

Hatem Dowidar

Hatem Dowidar is currently the CEO of Vodafone Egypt S.A.E..

Before that he spent over 5 years working internationally with Vodafone as CEO of Partner Markets in Vodafone Group with partnerships covering over 40 markets in five continents. He has been in this job since June 2007.

He was also the CEO of Vodafone Malta for two years and the Global Director of Consumer Voice Services in Vodafone Group in the HQ for 18 months.

He initially joined Vodafone in 1999 as the CMO of Vodafone Egypt.

Before Vodafone, Hatem worked in various managerial roles in Procter & Gamble as well as AEG (Daimler Benz Group) in Egypt.

- Hatem has a BSc degree in Telecommunications Engineering and an MBA as well as participating in senior management executive programmes in IMD and LBS

In his leisure time, Hatem enjoys travelling, hiking, scuba diving and reading.